PBSUCCESS

SPECIFIC—

Newspaper Articles

On February 2, 1954, the Guatemalan Ambassador to Mexico held a press conference to discuss his government's claim that an "international conspiracy" is being directed against the present regime in Guatemala. The enclosed clippings are articles ensuing from that press conference, stories on the expulsion of two U.S. newsmen from Guatemala, and reports from Guatemala on the protests that its government is making to the Congress of the United States.
